

PUBLIC DESIGN COMMISSION OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK

STATUS REPORT

PROJECT: Reconstruction of basketball courts, Nostrand Playground, adjacent to P.S. 269, Nostrand Avenue and Foster Avenue, Brooklyn

| REVIEWED                |           |                               |      |
|-------------------------|-----------|-------------------------------|------|
| Date:            | 10/4/2022 | Series and exhibit(s): | 2817 |
| Level of Review: | Sign-off  |                               |      |
| DOB / SBS #:     |           |                               |      |

|                 |         |             |       |            |
|-----------------|---------|-------------|-------|------------|
| HISTORY: | Review: | Preliminary | Date: | 8/14/2017  |
|                 | Review: | Final       | Date: | 10/16/2017 |
|                 | Review: |             | Date: |            |

| SUMMARY                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Per the conditions of final approval, the applicant submitted photographs of the completed project. From these photographs, it appears that the built project is consistent with the approved design. Please accept this letter as confirmation that PDC sign-off is given with the understanding that, should inconsistencies with the approved design be identified in the future, the Commission reserves the right to require changes. |

Completed by: R. Macklis
Date: 10/4/2022

cc: Sheena Brown, DPR