No. 532069

Section 57, Workmen's Compensation Law, as amended by Chapter 541 of the Laws of 1939. Effective May 26, 1939.

§ 57. The head of the state or municipal department, board, commission or office authorized or required by law to issue any permit for or in connection with any work involving the employment of employees in a hazardous employment defined by this chapter, and notwithstanding any general or special statute requiring or authorizing the issue of such permit, shall not issue such permit unless proof under oath is produced in a form satisfactory to the Industrial Commissioner, that compensation for all employees has been secured as provided by this chapter. Nothing herein, however, shall be construed as creating any liability on the part of such state or municipal department, board, commission or office to pay any compensation to any such employee if so employed.
